Hello, Neighbors! I'm seeing a little color on the leaves this week, which means we are getting close to fall! That also means we are nearing our annual Fall meeting!

Fall Homeowner's Meeting

When: Sat Oct 8th (we were unable to do Oct 1st)
Time: Noon for Potluck, Meeting 1 pm
Where: Big Willow Community Building

This is an HOA meeting with the board where we will be voting on the upcoming year's budget as well as discussing and voting on updated Bylaws. We'd love to see you all there! If you are not a paid member, you are welcome to enjoy lunch, meet your neighbors and hear the updates.

Just a reminder that Dues are Due by Oct 1st! You can pay online, bring a check to the meeting or send a check to our treasurer. You can find all that info HERE

We will have 2 vacancies on our HOA Board of Directors starting in October! If you'd like to make a positive impact in our community, we need you!

Attn: HOA Members: You should have received an email in the last few days to review some proposed changes to the Bylaws. If you did not receive it, please email us!

When was the last time you visited the local library?

Even if you are reading books only on your electronic devices these days, there is so much more to see and do at our local libraries. We know they have great programs for kids but they also have a variety of free things to do for adults, also!

Visit the Etowah branch for The Ancestors Club to work on your own family tree. Etowah also offers In Stitches, a group to work on your own yarn or thread projects while you visit with others.

Visit the Mills River branch for a Shelf Indulgence Book Club, which description reads “interesting books, stimulating conversation and coffee!”

At the Main library in Hendersonville, you can learn Excel, PowerPoint, or take a writing workshop if you want to learn something new.

Here is the link for the Henderson County Library Calendar. You can use the drop down arrows to sort by branch, also:

Hendersonville's Apple Festival is this weekend!

Food, fun and lots of tourists will fill main street for four days! You can see the event schedule on the festival website

<https://www.ncapplefestival.org>

If you are going to watch the parade on Monday afternoon, be sure to look for your Rambling Ridge neighbors, the Hendersonville Apple Tart Queens! They will be waving and dancing their way down Main Street on their float!

Do you have new neighbors? Please contact Cathy Shanks at csterp5@gmail.com so we can get them welcome packet!

Meet your neighbor, Brad Shanks!

Where do you hail from?

Born and raised in Canton, Ohio.

What was your favorite job? I've only had one job, Firestone Tire and Rubber for 38 years!

Where are your 2 favorite places to eat?

Anywhere there is GOOD food! One place I like is Black Rose.

Anything outdoors!

Have any hobbies or volunteer anywhere?

I have volunteered at the library, meals on wheels and the fishery. Hobbies? Cutting wood!

If you could time travel, when and where would you go? Back to the wild, wild west!

Brad and his wife, Cathy have lived in RR for 9 years. You will frequently see Brad walking his dog, Oliver, along Rambling Drive...stop and say hello!

Over the last month the Care Bears have:

Delivered meals post-op

Trimmed bushes

Driven neighbors to Dr appts

Watered plants

And various tech issues

Thank you to the volunteers!
